ACCG854 - COMPANY LAW
UNIT OUTLINE AND READING MATERIALS
TRIMESTER 1, 2008

Unit Description

The aim of this course is to introduce students to corporate regulation in Australia and to create an awareness of corporate issues.

Lectures will focus on relevant issues, cases and sections. Issues such as how to prepare for exams and how to maximise grades will be addressed.

There is no web page for this unit.

Teaching Staff

Lecturer in Charge:

Michael Quilter - tel: 98508456 – email: michael.quilter@law.mq.edu.au

Lecturers:

Nilhara Perumal – email:

Classes

Classes begin in the week commencing 21st January and finish in the week ending 11th April. The following are public holidays during teaching time: Monday 28th January (Australia Day); Friday 21st and Monday 24th March (Easter). Students will be advised regarding any alternative class arrangements for this day.

Classes will progress through the various Lecture Areas referred to in this Outline. There may be some reorganisation, overlapping, and/or integration of areas to accommodate assessment and course structure.

Assessment

Assessment will comprise a mid trimester examination (30% of total assessment), class presentation (10% of total assessment) and a final examination (60% of total assessment).

Mid Trimester Examination (30%)

The mid trimester examination will be held on either the 1st or 8th of March (these are the dates set aside for the mid trimester exams). Further details of the timing and format of the mid-trimester exam will be provided closer to the date of the exam.

Final Examination (60%)

The final exam for this unit will be held during the final examination period for Trimester 1 2008 which is from Monday 14th April to Saturday 19th April. In order to attain a passing grade overall for the unit, and subject to the Lecturer-in-Charge's discretion, students must pass the final examination.

Examinations

You are expected to present yourself at the mid trimester and final examination at a time and place designated in the University Examination Timetable. The Examination Timetable will be available on the Master of Accounting website in week 10.

<http://www.accg.mq.edu.au/macc/admin/timetables.htm>

The only exception to not sitting an examination at the designated time is because of documented illness or unavoidable disruption. In these circumstances you may wish to consider applying for Special Consideration. Students should refer to Special Consideration Procedures \(PDF download instructions\). Please note that both the Special Consideration Application Form and the Professional Authority Form must be completed. A medical certificate alone is considered inadequate. Forms must be submitted to the MAcc office, E4A Level 2, Reception within 2 days of the original examination.

You are advised that it is a Macquarie University policy not to set early examinations for individuals or groups of students. All students are expected to ensure that they are available until the end of the teaching trimester which is the final day of the official examination period.

Further matters relating to Special Consideration:

1. University rules as apply to requests for special consideration must be strictly followed.
2. An application for special consideration will be relevant where a student suffers severe disruption or has a serious medical condition.

Whilst there is always room to consider a student's special needs in exceptional circumstances note that supplementary exams will only be granted in cases where the student suffers severe disruption or has a serious medical condition and does not sit the exam. Please note that even though a medical certificate may be provided the issue of whether a supplementary exam is warranted (and the issue of special consideration generally) remains within the discretion of the convenor of the course. There is no automatic right to a supplementary exam merely because an application for special consideration has been lodged.

University Policy on Grading

Academic Senate has a set of guidelines on the distribution of grades across the range from fail to high distinction. Your raw mark for a unit (ie. the total of your marks for each assessment item) may not be the same as the standardised numerical grade (SNG) which you receive.

The policy does not require that a minimum number of students are to be failed in any unit.

For an explanation of the policy see:

<http://www.mq.edu.au/senate/MQUonly/Issues/Guidelines2003.doc> or
<http://www.mq.edu.au/senate/MQUonly/Issues/detailedguidelines.doc>

Macquarie University Rules and Regulations

All assessment is subject to the University's rules and information to students set out in the Handbook of Postgraduate Studies. You are particularly referred to rules of the various postgraduate awards; and with the Student Information regarding Plagiarism and Assessment.

Cheating, Plagiarism and Copyright Infringement

To cheat in the context of university assignments, tests and examinations is to attempt to gain an unfair advantage by violating the principles of intellectual and scholarly integrity. Cheating also encompasses plagiarism, which the University defines in its rules: "Plagiarism involves using the work of another person and presenting it as one's own." Plagiarism is a serious breach of the University's rules and carries significant penalties. You must read the University's practices and procedures on plagiarism. These can be found in the Handbook of Postgraduate Studies noted above, or on the web at:

<http://www.student.mq.edu.au/plagiarism/>

The policies and procedures explain what plagiarism is, how to avoid it, the procedures that will be taken in cases of suspected plagiarism, and the penalties if you are found guilty. Penalties may include a deduction of marks, failure in the unit, and/or referral to the University Discipline Committee.

Whereas restricted photocopying of books and articles is permissible for the purposes of study it is a breach of the publishers and/or authors copyright (and of the Copyright Act) to photocopy (or to arrange the photocopying of) substantial parts of works without the copyright owners permission. There are notices in the Library photocopy areas to this effect.

Student Support Services

Macquarie University provides a range of Academic Student Support Services. Details can be accessed at: <http://www.student.mq.edu.au>

Further, NCELTR provides Study Skills workshops for MAcc students. For the timetable, see <http://www.accg.mq.edu.au/macc> .

What is expected of students

Students should take responsibility for their own learning and this will incorporate reading as required, attendance at lectures and reflection on their abilities. The capacity of each student to digest material will vary and accordingly self assessment is necessary. The amount of focussed and effective effort a student puts in to preparation and study will generally be reflected in their performance.

Attendance

Whilst there are no marks given specifically for attendance where any issue arises as to a students performance it may be necessary to consider whether the issue of attendance is relevant. In a simple economic sense students pay for instruction and should attend classes to get the benefit and help of their lecturer.

Class Presentation

Students should regard the class presentation as an opportunity to develop an important workplace skill as well as an opportunity to prepare a particular area of the course in more detail. Marks for class presentations will be determined by the lecturer based simply upon their perception of the presentation as achieving, or otherwise, its purpose. Examples of the type of matters that may be comprised in any discretionary assessment of a presentation include: clarity, content, use of resources or aids, interest, timing, currency, originality.

Submission of work

There are no take home assignments in ACCG854 however whenever a student presents any work for assessment (mid and final exams and the class presentation) they should ensure that any applicable conditions are satisfied and that the work is done to the best of their ability. Assessment is an opportunity for students to show that they are interested in the material and that they have successfully developed a method of study and can apply the content studied.

Learning Outcomes

Lectures will focus on relevant issues, cases and sections. Issues such as how to prepare for exams and how to maximise grades will be addressed.

Students will be alerted to the importance of skills that will assist learning and basic generic (workplace) skills that will assist in the development of a successful professional career. Examples include:

- responding and communicating in class (teamwork, cooperation and the ability to build and maintain professional relations)
- the ability to comprehend and digest material (setting effective and attainable goals, gathering material and exploring new ideas and viewpoints)
- effective note-taking in lectures (client interviews and peer meetings)

Overall the aim of this course is to introduce students to corporate regulation in Australia and to create an awareness of corporate issues.

Further, the course aims to assist students to:

- Understand the nature of, and distinguish between, the various forms of business organisations.
- Understand the past and present legislative framework in relation to the creation and regulation of companies.
- Understand how companies are formed and be able to identify the distinctions between different types of companies.
- Understand the nature of a company's constitution and how it affects the company's activities.
- Understand the ways in which a company may raise finance.
- Understand issues concerning corporate management, in particular the role and obligations of directors.
- Be aware in a general way of corporate governance matters including the impact of relevant ethical issues.
- Understand how shareholders rights are protected.
- Be aware of how the Corporations Act regulates the acquisition and disposal of shares.
- Understand the impact of insolvency on a company and the different ways it may be addressed and dealt with in the current regulatory environment.

- Apply the law in an ordered manner for the purposes of analysing and solving problems relating to company law.
- Develop an interest in, and an understanding of, current corporate issues.

Strategies for Learning

Students are encouraged to ask questions in class to ensure that they are clear in relation to the material presented. The unit outline contains practice questions that allow students to apply the content delivered in lectures and contained in texts. Certain practice questions will be considered in class. The requirement for all students to present on a specific matter enables them to test their communication skills and their ability to be both concise and clear.

Students are encouraged to have a perspective on assessment, to think strategically about their goal of a successful result in the unit. Study and examination techniques are important if students are to maximise their potential.

The following ARE REQUIRED for the purposes of the course:

Michael Quilter, The Company Law Notes, Thomson Lawbook Co. 3rd ed. 2008.
This is referred to as Q herein.

Lipton and Herzberg, Understanding Company Law, Thomson Lawbook Co. 14th ed.
2008. This is referred to as L&H herein.

Included in this outline is a substantial part of the Partnership Act. After considering the law of partnership the course will focus on corporate issues and the relevance and effect of the Corporations Act. Note that certain relevant sections of the Corporations Act are set out in The Company Law Notes 3rd edition 2008. Both statutes (the Partnership Act and the Corporations Act) may be viewed in full at www.austlii.edu.au (for the Partnership Act go to “NSW”, then “Consolidated Acts”. For the Corporations Act, go to “Commonwealth”, then “Consolidated Acts”).

The course focuses on company law and accordingly the Corporations Act is the most relevant statute. Note that if students wish, they can purchase a copy of the current Corporations Act at the Co-op Bookshop.

The following are NOT required but are relevant to the areas addressed in the course (always use current editions where possible).

Woodward, Bird, Sievers, Corporations Law in Principle, Lawbook Co. This contains various practice questions (some of which are included in this outline as practice questions) and is referred to as WBS herein.

PARTNERSHIP ACT 1892 55 Vic. No. 12

[Reprinted as at 21 November 1994]
UPDATED 10 AUGUST 1999

NEW SOUTH WALES

An Act to declare and amend the law of Partnership.

Preamble

WHEREAS it is expedient to declare and amend the law of Partnership: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

Short title

1A. This Act may be cited as the Partnership Act 1892.

Definitions

1B. In this Act:

“business” includes trade, occupation and profession;

“Court” means the court having jurisdiction in the case concerned.

PART 2—PARTNERSHIPS GENERALLY

Division 1—Nature of partnership

Definition of partnership

1. (1) Partnership is the relation which exists between persons carrying on a business in common with a view of profit.

(2) But the relation between members of any company or association which is:

- (a) incorporated under the Corporations Law; or
- (b) Formed or incorporated by or in pursuance of any other Act of Parliament or Letters Patent or Royal Charter, is not a Partnership within the meaning of this Act.

Rules for determining existence of partnership

2. In determining whether a partnership does or does not exist, regard shall be had to the following rules:

- (1) Joint tenancy, tenancy in common, joint property, or part ownership does not of itself create a partnership as to anything so held or owned, whether the tenants or owners do or do not share any profits made by the use thereof.
- (2) The sharing of gross returns does not of itself create a partnership, whether the persons sharing such returns have or have not a joint or common right or interest in any property from which or from the use of which the returns are derived.
- (3) The receipt by a person of a share of the profits of a business is prima facie evidence that the person is a partner in the business, but the receipt of such a share, or of a payment contingent on, or varying with the profits of a business does not of itself make the person a partner in the business; and in particular:
 - (a) The receipt by a person of a debt or other liquidated demand by instalments or otherwise out of the accruing profits of a business does not of itself make the person a partner in the business or liable as such:
 - (b) A contract for the remuneration of a servant or agent of a person engaged in a business by a share of the profits of the business does not of itself make the servant or agent a partner in the business or liable as such:

- (c) A person being the widow, widower or child of a deceased partner, and receiving by way of annuity a portion of the profits made in the business in which the deceased person was a partner, is not by reason only of such receipt a partner in the business or liable as such:
- (d) The advance of money by way of loan to a person engaged or about to engage in any business on a contract with that person, that the lender shall receive a rate of interest varying with the profits, or shall receive a share of the profits arising from carrying on the business, does not of itself make the lender a partner with the person or persons carrying on the business or liable as such: Provided that the contract is in writing and signed by or on behalf of all the parties thereto:
- (e) A person receiving by way of annuity or otherwise a portion of the profits of a business in consideration of the sale by the person of the goodwill of the business is not by reason only of such receipt a partner in the business or liable as such.

Postponement of rights of persons lending or selling in consideration of share of profits in case of insolvency

3. In the event of any person to whom money has been advanced by way of loan upon such a contract as is mentioned in the last foregoing section, or of any buyer of a goodwill in consideration of a share of the profits of the business being adjudged a bankrupt, entering into an arrangement to pay the person's creditors less than one hundred cents in the dollar, or dying in insolvent circumstances, the lender of the loan shall not be entitled to recover anything in respect of the loan, and the seller of the goodwill shall not be entitled to recover anything in respect of the share of profits contracted for, until the claims of the other creditors of the borrower or buyer for valuable consideration in money or money's worth have been satisfied.

Meaning of firms

4. Persons who have entered into partnership with one another are for the purpose of this Act called collectively a firm, and the name under which their business is carried on is called the firm-name.

Division 2—Relationship of partners to persons dealing with them

Power of partner to bind the firm

5. Every partner is an agent of the firm and of the other partners for the purpose of the business of the partnership; and the acts of every partner who does any act for carrying on in the usual way business of the kind carried on by the firm of which the partner is a member, binds the firm and the other partners, unless the partner so acting has in fact no authority to act for the firm in the particular matter, and the person with whom the partner is dealing either knows that the partner has no authority, or does not know or believe the partner to be a partner.

Partners bound by acts on behalf of firm

6. An act or instrument relating to the business of the firm, and done or executed in the firm-name, or in any other manner, showing an intention to bind the firm by any person thereto authorised, whether a partner or not, is binding on the firm and all the partners: Provided that this section shall not affect any general rule of law relating to the execution of deeds or negotiable instruments.

Partner using credit of firm for private purposes

7. Where one partner pledges the credit of the firm for a purpose apparently not connected with the firm's ordinary course of business, the firm is not bound unless the partner is in fact specially authorised by the other partners; but this section does not affect any personal liability incurred by an individual partner.

Effect of notice that firm will not be bound by acts of partner

8. If it has been agreed between the partners that any restrictions shall be placed upon the power of any one or more of them to bind the firm, no act done in contravention of the agreement is binding on the firm with respect to persons having notice of the agreement.

Liability of partner

9. Every partner in a firm is liable jointly with the other partners for all debts and obligations of the firm incurred while the partner is a partner; and after the partner's death the partner's estate is also severally liable in a due course of administration for such debts and obligations so far as they remain unsatisfied, but subject to the prior payment of the partner's separate debts.

Liability of the firm for wrongs

10. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where by any wrongful act or omission of any partner acting in the ordinary course of the business of the firm, or with the authority of the partner's co-partners, loss or injury is caused to any person not being a partner of the firm, or any penalty is incurred, the firm is liable therefore to the same extent as the partner so acting or omitting to act.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a partner who commits a wrongful act or omission as a director of a body corporate, within the meaning of the Corporations Law, is not to be taken to be acting in the ordinary course of the business of the firm or with the authority of the partner's co-partners only because of any one or more of the following:

- (a) the partner obtained the agreement or authority of the partner's co-partners, or some of them, to be appointed or to act as a director of the body corporate,
- (b) remuneration that the partner receives for acting as a director of the body corporate forms part of the income of the firm,
- (c) any co-partner is also a director of that or any other body corporate.

Misapplication of money or property received for or in custody of the firm

11. In the following cases, namely:

- (a) Where one partner acting within the scope of the partner's apparent authority receives the money or property of a third person and misapplies it; and
- (b) When a firm in the course of its business receives money or property of a third person, and the money or property so received is misapplied by one or more of the partners while it is in the custody of the firm;

the firm is liable to make good the loss.

Liability for wrongs joint and several

12. Every partner is liable jointly with the partner's co-partners and also severally for everything for which the firm while the partner is a partner therein becomes liable under either of the two last preceding sections.

Improper employment of trust property for partnership purposes

13. If a partner being a trustee improperly employs trust property in the business or on account of the partnership, no other partner is liable for the trust property to the persons beneficially interested therein:

Provided as follows:

- (1) This section shall not affect any liability incurred by any partner by reason of the partner's having notice of a breach of trust; and
- (2) Nothing in this section shall prevent trust money from being followed and recovered from the firm if still in its possession or under its control.

Persons liable by "holding out"

14. (1) Every one who by words spoken or written, or by conduct represents himself or herself, or who knowingly suffers himself or herself to be represented as a partner in a particular firm, is liable as a partner to any one who has on the faith of any such representation given credit to the firm, whether the representation has or has not been made or communicated to the person so giving credit by or with the knowledge of the apparent partner making the representation or suffering it to be made.

(2) Provided that where after a partner's death the partnership business is continued in the old firm-name, the continued use of that name or of the deceased partner's name as part thereof shall not of itself make the partner's executors or administrators' estate or effects liable for any partnership debts contracted after the partner's death.

Admissions and representations of partners

15. An admission or representation made by any partner concerning the partnership affairs, and in the ordinary course of its business, is evidence against the firm.

Notice to acting partner to be notice to the firm

16. Notice to any partner who habitually acts in the partnership business of any matter relating to partnership affairs operates as notice to the firm, except in the case of a fraud on the firm committed by or with the consent of that partner.

Liabilities of incoming and outgoing partners

17. (1) A person who is admitted as a partner into an existing firm does not thereby become liable to the creditors of the firm for anything done before the person became a partner.

(2) A partner who retires from a firm does not thereby cease to be liable for partnership debt and obligation incurred before the partner's retirement.

(3) A retiring partner may be discharged from any existing liabilities by an agreement to that effect between the partner and the members of the firm as newly constituted and the creditors, and this agreement may be either expressed or inferred as a fact from the course of dealing between the creditors and the firm as newly constituted.

Revocation of continuing guaranty by change of firm

18. A continuing guaranty or cautionary obligation given either to a firm or to a third person in respect of the transactions of a firm is, in the absence of agreement to the contrary, revoked as to future transactions by any change in the constitution of the firm to which, or of the firm in respect of whose transactions, the guaranty or obligation was given.

Division 3—Relationship between partners

Variation by consent of terms of partnership

19. The mutual rights and duties of partners, whether ascertained by agreement or defined by this Act, may be varied by the consent of all the partners, and such consent may be either expressed or inferred from a course of dealing.

Partnership property

20. (1) All property, and rights and interests in property, originally brought into the partnership stock or acquired, whether by purchase or otherwise, on account of the firm, or for the purposes and in the course of the partnership business, are called in this Act partnership property, and must be held and applied by the partners exclusively for the purposes of the partnership, and in accordance with the partnership agreement.

(2) Provided that the legal estate or interest in any land which belongs to the partnership shall devolve according to the nature and tenure thereof, and the general rules of law thereto applicable, but in trust so far as is necessary for the persons beneficially interested in the land under this section.

(3) Where co-owners of an estate or interest in any land, not being itself partnership property, are partners as to profits made by the use of that land or estate, and purchase other lands and estate out of the profits to be used in like manner, the land or estate so purchased belongs to them, in the absence of an agreement to the contrary, not as partners, but as co-owners for the same respective estates and interests as are held by them in the land or estate first-mentioned at the date of the purchase.

Property bought with partnership money

21. Unless the contrary intention appears, property bought with money belonging to the firm is deemed to have been bought on account of the firm.

Conversion into personal estate of land held as partnership property

22. Where land or any heritable interest therein has become partnership property, it shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be treated as between the partners (including the representatives of a deceased partner), and also as between the heirs of a deceased partner and the deceased partner's executors or administrators as personal or movable and not real or heritable estate.

Procedure against partnership property for a partner's separate judgment debt

23. (1) After the commencement of this Act a writ of execution shall not issue against any partnership property except on a judgment against the firm.

(2) The Supreme Court may, on the application of any judgment creditor of a partner, make an order charging that partner's interest in the partnership property and profits with payment of the amount of the judgment debt and interest thereon and may by the same or a subsequent order appoint a receiver of that partner's share of profits (whether already declared or accruing), and of any other money which may be coming to the partner in respect of the partnership, and direct all accounts and inquiries, and give all other orders and directions which might have been directed or given if the charge had been made in favour of the judgment creditor by the partner, or which the circumstances of the case may require.

(3) The other partner or partners shall be at liberty at any time to redeem the interest charged, or in the case of a sale being directed to purchase the same.

Rules as to the interests and duty of partners subject to special agreement

24. The interests of partners in the partnership property and their rights and duties in relation to the partnership shall be determined, subject to any agreement expressed or implied between the partners, by the following rules:

- (1) All the partners are entitled to share equally in the capital and profits of the business, and must contribute equally towards the losses whether of capital or otherwise sustained by the firm.
- (2) The firm must indemnify every partner in respect of payment made and personal liabilities incurred by the partner.
 - (a) In the ordinary and proper conduct of the business of the firm; or
 - (b) In or about anything necessarily done for the preservation of the business or property of the firm.
- (3) A partner making, for the purpose of the partnership, any actual payment or advance beyond the amount of capital which the partner has agreed to subscribe is entitled to interest at the rate of seven per centum per annum from the date of the payment or advances.
- (4) A partner is not entitled before the ascertainment of profits to interest on the capital subscribed by the partner.
- (5) Every partner may take part in the management of the partnership business.
- (6) No partner shall be entitled to remuneration for acting in the partnership business.
- (7) No person may be introduced as a partner without the consent of all existing partners.
- (8) Any difference arising as to ordinary matters connected with the partnership business may be decided by a majority of partners, but no change may be made in the nature of the partnership business without the consent of all existing partners.
- (9) The partnership books are to be kept at the place of business of the partnership (or the principal place, if there is more than one), and every partner may, when the partner thinks fit, have access to and inspect and copy any of them.

Expulsion of partner

25. No majority of the partners can expel any partner unless a power to do so has been conferred by express agreement between the partners.

Retirement from partnership at will

26. (1) Where no fixed term has been agreed upon for the duration of the partnership, any partner may determine the partnership at any time on giving notice of the partner's intention so to do to all the other partners.

(2) Where the partnership has originally been constituted by deed, a notice signed by the partner giving it, shall be sufficient for this purpose.

Where partnership for term is continued over, continuance on old terms presumed

27. (1) Where a partnership entered into for a fixed term is continued after the term has expired, and without any express new agreement, the rights and duties of the partners remain the same as they were at the expiration of the term, so far as is consistent with the incidents of a partnership at will.

(2) A continuance of the business by the partners or such of them as habitually acted therein during the term without any settlement or liquidation of the partnership affairs, is presumed to be a continuance of the partnership.

Duty of partners to render accounts

28. Partners are bound to render true accounts and full information of all things affecting the partnership to any partner or the partner's legal representatives.

Accountability of partners for private profits

29. (1) Every partner must account to the firm for any benefit derived by the partner without the consent of the other partners from any transaction concerning the partnership, or for any use by the partner of the partnership property, name, or business connexion.

(2) This section applies also to transactions undertaken after a partnership has been dissolved by the death of a partner, and before the affairs thereof have been completely wound up, either by any surviving partner or by the representatives of the deceased partner.

Duty of partner not to compete with firm

30. If a partner, without the consent of the other partners, carries on any business of the same nature as and competing with that of the firm, the partner must account for and pay over to the firm all profits made by the partner in that business.

Rights of assignee of share in partnership

31. (1) An assignment by any partner of the partner's share in the partnership, either absolute or by way of mortgage or redeemable charge, does not, as against the other partners, entitle the assignee during the continuance of the partnership, to interfere in the management or administration of the partnership business or affairs, or to require any account of the partnership transactions, or to inspect the partnership books, but entitles the assignee only to receive the share of profits to which the assigning partner would otherwise be entitled, and the assignee must accept the account of profits agreed to by the partners.

(2) In case of a dissolution of the partnership, whether as respect all the partners, or as respects the assigning partner, the assignee is entitled to receive the share of the partnership assets to which the assigning partner is entitled as between the partner and the other partners, and for the purpose of ascertaining that share, to an account as from the date of the dissolution.

Division 4—Dissolution of partnership

Dissolution by expiration or otherwise

32. Subject to any agreement between the partners, a partnership is dissolved:

- (a) If entered into for a fixed term, by the expiration of that term:
- (b) If entered into for a single adventure or undertaking, by the termination of that adventure or undertaking:
- (c) If entered into for an undefined time, by any partner giving notice to the other or others of the partner's intention to dissolve the partnership.

In the last-mentioned case the partnership is dissolved as from the date mentioned in the notice as the date of dissolution, or, if no date is mentioned, as from the date of the communication of the notice.

Dissolution by bankruptcy, death, or change

33. (1) Subject to any agreement between the partners, every partnership is dissolved as regards all the partners by the death or bankruptcy of any partner.

(2) A partnership may, at the option of the other partners, be dissolved if any partner suffers the partner's share of the partnership property to be charged under this Act for the partner's separate debt.

Dissolution by illegality of partnership

34. A partnership is in every case dissolved by the happening of any event which makes it unlawful for the business of the firm to be carried on, or for the members of the firm to carry it on in partnership.

Dissolution by the Court

35. On application by a partner the Court may order a dissolution of the partnership in any of the following cases:

- (a) When a partner has been declared in accordance with law to be of unsound mind and incapable of managing the partner's affairs, or is shown to the satisfaction of the Court to be of permanently unsound mind, in either of which cases the application may be made as well on behalf of that partner by the partner's committee or next friend or person having title to intervene as by any other partner.
- (b) When a partner, other than the partner suing, becomes in any other way permanently incapable of performing the partner's part of the partnership contract.

- (c) When a partner, other than the partner suing, has been guilty of such conduct as, in the opinion of the Court, regard being had to the nature of the business, is calculated to prejudicially affect the carrying on of the business.
- (d) When a partner, other than the party suing, wilfully or persistently commits a breach of the partnership agreement, or otherwise conducts himself or herself in matters relating to the partnership business so that it is not reasonably practicable for the other partner or partners to carry on the business in partnership with the partner.
- (e) When the business of the partnership can only be carried on at a loss.
- (f) Whenever in any case circumstances have arisen, which, in the opinion of the Court, render it just and equitable that the partnership be dissolved.

Rights of persons dealing with firm against apparent members of firm

36. (1) When a person deals with a firm after a change in its constitution, the person is entitled to treat all apparent members of the old firm as still being members of the firm until the person has notice of the change.

(2) An advertisement in the Gazette and in at least one newspaper circulating in Sydney and one newspaper circulating in the district in which the firm carries on business shall be notice as to persons who had not dealings with the firm before the date of the dissolution or change so advertised.

(3) The estate of a partner who dies, or who becomes bankrupt, or of a partner who, not having been known to the person dealing with the firm to be a partner, retires from the firm, is not liable for partnership debts contracted after the date of the death, bankruptcy, or retirement respectively.

Right of partners to notify dissolution

37. On the dissolution of a partnership or retirement of a partner any partner may publicly notify the same, and may require the other partner or partners to concur for that purpose in all necessary and proper acts, if any, which cannot be done without the partner's or their concurrence.

Continuing authority of partners for purposes of winding-up

38. After the dissolution of a partnership the authority of each partner to bind the firm, and the other rights and obligations of the partners continue, notwithstanding the dissolution, so far as may be necessary to wind up the affairs of the partnership, and to complete transactions begun but unfinished at the time of the dissolution, but not otherwise: Provided that the firm is in no case bound by the acts of a partner who has become bankrupt; but this proviso does not affect the liability of any person who has, after the bankruptcy, represented himself or herself or knowingly suffered himself or herself to be represented as a partner of the bankrupt.

Rights of partners to application of partnership property

39. On the dissolution of a partnership every partner is entitled, as against the other partners in the firm, and all persons claiming through them in respect of their interests as partners, to have the property of the partnership applied in payment of the debts and liabilities of the firm, and to have the surplus assets after such payment applied in payment of what may be due to the partners respectively after deducting what may be due from them as partners to the firm; and for that purpose any partner or the partner's representatives may, on the termination of the partnership, apply to the Court to wind up the business and affairs of the firm.

Apportionment of premium when partnership prematurely dissolved

40. Where one partner has paid a premium to another on entering into a partnership for a fixed term, and the partnership is dissolved before the expiration of that term otherwise than by the death of a partner, the Court may order the repayment of the premium, or of such part as it thinks just, having regard to the terms of the partnership contract, and to the length of time during which the partnership has continued; unless:

- (a) the dissolution is, in the judgment of the Court, wholly or chiefly due to the misconduct of the partner who paid the premium, or
- (b) the partnership has been dissolved by an agreement containing no provision for a return of any part of the premium.

Rights where partnership dissolved for fraud or misrepresentation

41. Where a partnership contract is rescinded on the ground of the fraud or misrepresentation of one of the parties thereto, the party entitled to rescind is, without prejudice to any other right, entitled:

- (a) to a lien on, or right of retention of, the surplus of the partnership assets, after satisfying the partnership liabilities, for any sum of money paid by the party for the purchase of a share in the partnership and for any capital contributed by the party; and is
- (b) to stand in the place of the creditors of the firm for any payments made by the party in respect of the partnership liabilities; and
- (c) to be indemnified by the person guilty of the fraud or making the representation against all the debts and liabilities of the firm.

Right of outgoing partner in certain cases to share profits made after dissolution

42. (1) Where any member of a firm has died, or otherwise ceased to be a partner, and the surviving and continuing partners carry on the business of the firm with its capital or assets without any final settlement of accounts as between the firm and the outgoing partner, or the partner's estate, then, in the absence of any agreement to the contrary, the outgoing partner or the partner's estate is entitled, at the option of the partner or the partner's representatives, to such share of the profits made since the dissolution as the Court may find to be attributable to the use of the partner's share of the partnership assets, or to interest at the rate of six per centum per annum on the amount of the partner's share of the partnership assets.

(2) Provided that where, by the partnership contract, an option is given to surviving or continuing partners to purchase the interest of a deceased or outgoing partner, and that option is duly exercised, the estate of the deceased partner, or the outgoing partner or the partner's estate, as the case may be, is not entitled to any further or other share of profits; but if any partner assuming to act in exercise of the option does not in all material respects comply with the terms thereof, the partner is liable to account under the foregoing provisions of this section.

Retiring or deceased partner's share to be a debt

43. Subject to any agreement between the partners, the amount due from surviving or continuing partners to an outgoing partner, or the representatives of a deceased partner, in respect of the outgoing or deceased partner's share, is a debt accruing at the date of the dissolution or death.

Rule for distribution of assets on final settlement of accounts

44. In settling accounts between the partners after a dissolution of partnership, the following rules shall, subject to any agreement, be observed:

- (a) Losses, including losses and deficiencies of capital, shall be paid first out of profits, next out of capital, and lastly, if necessary, by the partners individually in the proportion in which they were entitled to share profits.
- (b) The assets of the firm, including the sums, if any, contributed by the partners to make up losses or deficiencies of capital, shall be applied in the following manner and order:
 1. In paying the debts and liabilities of the firm to persons who are not partners therein.
 2. In paying to each partner rateably what is due by the firm to the partner for advances as distinguished from capital.
 3. In paying to each partner rateably what is due from the firm to the partner in respect of capital.
 4. The ultimate residue, if any, shall be divided among the partners in the proportion in which profits are divisible.

Division 5—Miscellaneous provisions

PART 3—LIMITED PARTNERSHIPS

This part is not reproduced in full

Composition of limited partnership

- 51. (1) A limited partnership is a partnership consisting of:
- (a) at least one general partner; and
 - (b) at least one limited partner.
- (2) A corporation may be a general partner or a limited partner.

Size of limited partnership

- 52. (1) A limited partnership may have any number of limited partners.
- (2) The number of general partners must not (if the partnership consisted only of those general partners) result in the partnership being an outside partnership for the purposes of section 112 of the Corporations Law.

How formed

- 53. A limited partnership is formed on the registration of the partnership under this Part as a limited partnership.

Business Names Act 1962 not to apply

- 59. The Business Names Act 1962 does not apply so as to require the partners in a limited partnership to register a business name if that name is the firm-name registered under this Part.

Liability of limited partner limited to amount shown in Register

- 60. (1) The liability of a limited partner to contribute to the debts or obligations of the limited partnership is (subject to this Part) not to exceed the amount shown in relation to the limited partner in the Register as the extent to which the limited partner is liable to contribute.
- (2) If a limited partner makes a contribution towards the debts or obligations of the limited partnership, the liability of the limited partner is reduced to such part of the amount shown in the Register as remains unpaid.

Limited partner not to take part in management of partnership

- 67. (1) A limited partner must not take part in the management of the business of the limited partnership and does not have power to bind the limited partnership.
- (2) If a limited partner takes part in the management of the business of the limited partnership, the limited partner is liable, as if the partner were a general partner, for the debts and obligations of the partnership incurred while the limited partner takes part in the management of that business.
