Unit Code: BUS854
Unit Name: Managing Cultural Diversity in Business

Second Semester, 2011

Department of Marketing and Management

MACQUARIE UNIVERSITY
FACULTY OF BUSINESS AND ECONOMICS
UNIT OUTLINE

Year and Semester:	Semester 2, 2011
Unit convenor:	Dr Keson Loke
Prerequisites:	Students at Master's level are assumed to have a sound knowledge and understanding of management principles.
Credit points:	Four

Students in this unit should read this unit outline carefully at the start of semester. It contains important information about the unit. If anything in it is unclear, please consult Dr Loke.

ABOUT THIS UNIT

- Unit description and credit points

To succeed in the contemporary multi-cultural business environment, it is imperative for the firm and its managers to have a sound understanding of cultural differences and how to effectively manage such cultural diversity. The objective of this course is to enhance the understanding of how cultural diversity affects managerial behaviour and processes, and to develop the skills necessary to conduct effective cross-cultural interaction and management. The unit utilises a range of assessment criteria including understanding of cross-cultural concepts, analysis of case studies, informal presentations and group activities.

This unit is worth 4 credit points.

- Unit rationale

This Unit complements the existing subject balance within the International Business program and provides students with an understanding of cross-cultural management in today's multi-cultural business environment.

TEACHING STAFF

- Convenor and Lecturer: Dr Keson Loke (email: keson.loke@mq.edu.au)

CONSULTATION TIMES

- Before and after each class. Students are to email Dr Loke to firm up the exact time and venue of meeting prior to any consultation appointment.

You are encouraged to seek help at a time that is convenient to you from Dr Loke during his regular consultation hours. In special circumstances, an appointment may be made outside regular consultation hours. Staff will not conduct any consultations by email.

Students experiencing significant difficulties with any topic in the unit must seek assistance immediately.

CLASSES

- Number and length of classes: 3 hours face-to-face teaching per week, consisting of 1 x 3 hour lecture combined with group case study presentation and class discussions.
- The timetable for classes can be found on the University web site at: <http://www.timetables.mq.edu.au/>
- Please note that owing to the integral nature of the group work and the limited capacity of the classrooms, it is not possible to switch between classes and students must attend the class for which they have registered.
- Please note that while there is no mark for attendance, students are expected to attend all weekly classes, unless excused.
- Attendance will be taken in the weekly classes. Medical certificates must be provided if you are not able to attend a class.
- Warning: You must attend at least 10 of the 12 weekly classes – failure to do so may affect your learning outcomes and performance in this Unit.
- Students are expected to arrive on time, and not to leave until the class ends.
- Students must be quiet during classes, unless of course when class participation is required.
- Mobile phone must be turned OFF.
- Students who disturb or disrupt in class will be asked to leave.

REQUIRED AND RECOMMENDED TEXTS AND/OR MATERIALS

- You must attend at least 10 of the 12 weekly classes – failure to do so may affect your learning outcomes and performance in this Unit. Attendance will be taken in the weekly classes. Medical certificates must be provided if you are not able to attend a class.

- Late submission of assignments will only be marked where an extension has been granted. A penalty of 20% of the assignment mark (i.e. 2 marks if the assignment is marked out of 10) will be deducted for each day that the assignment is late, unless there are extraordinary circumstances such as documented illness or other unavoidable disruptions. In these circumstances you may wish to consider applying for Special Consideration. Information about unavoidable disruption and the special consideration process is available at <http://www.reg.mq.edu.au/Forms/APSCon.pdf> (Please note that work or family commitments will not normally be acceptable excuses. The circumstances must be extraordinary and something that could not have been reasonably predicted or avoided.)
- Work that is submitted late without prior written permission and without a completed advice of absence form will not be marked. Students are advised to keep a copy of all permissions given in event of dispute.
- The date and time recorded by Turnitin shall be used for the purposes of determining late submission penalties. As there are sometimes delays with the system, you are advised to submit early to avoid penalties.

Examinations

A final examination is included as an assessment task for this unit to provide assurance that:

- i) the product belongs to the student and
- ii) the student has attained the knowledge and skills tested in the exam.

A 3-hour final examination for this unit will be held during the University Examination period.

The University Examination period in Second Half Year 2011 is from 14 November to 2 December 2011.

You are expected to present yourself for examination at the time and place designated in the University Examination Timetable. The timetable will be available in Draft form approximately eight weeks before the commencement of the examinations and in Final form approximately four weeks before the commencement of the examinations <http://www.timetables.mq.edu.au/exam>

The only exception to not sitting an examination at the designated time is because of documented illness or unavoidable disruption. In these circumstances you may wish to consider applying for Special Consideration. Information about unavoidable disruption and the special consideration process is available at <http://www.reg.mq.edu.au/Forms/APSCon.pdf>

If a Supplementary Examination is granted as a result of the Special Consideration process the examination will be scheduled after the conclusion of the official examination period.

The Macquarie university examination policy details the principles and conduct of examinations at the University. The policy is available at:
<http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/examination/policy.htm>

ACADEMIC HONESTY

The nature of scholarly endeavour, dependent as it is on the work of others, binds all members of the University community to abide by the principles of academic honesty. Its fundamental principle is that all staff and students act with integrity in the creation, development, application and use of ideas and information. This means that:

- all academic work claimed as original is the work of the author making the claim
- all academic collaborations are acknowledged
- academic work is not falsified in any way
- when the ideas of others are used, these ideas are acknowledged appropriately.

Further information on the academic honesty can be found in the Macquarie University Academic Honesty Policy at http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/academic_honesty/policy.html

GRADES

Macquarie University uses the following grades in coursework units of study:
