UNIT OUTLINE

Unit Convenor:	Ms Leanne Carter
Lecturer in Charge:	Adjunct Professor-Mr Bob Miller
Tutor:	Professor Bob Miller
Prerequisites:	24 credit points

This is a people designated unit. Students should read the Unit Outline carefully at the beginning of the semester. It contains important information about the unit. If anything is unclear, please consult the unit convenor.

ABOUT THIS UNIT

MKTG309 is a 3 credit point unit. Marketing is typically concerned with behaviour in the limited area of consumption and the market place. Social marketing seeks to understand why we live our lives as we do, sometimes healthily as when we eat a good diet or take regular exercise, and at other times unhealthily as when we smoke or binge drink. So, just as tobacco marketers use marketing to encourage smoking, 'social marketing' can do the reverse. The same principles - of understanding the consumer, strategic thinking and building satisfying relationships based on emotional as well as rational benefits - can be put to good use. Social marketing also recognises that, although commerce brings many benefits, it can also cause harm to both the individual and society. Tobacco, which kills half its long term users, provides an extreme example of this, but other industries like alcohol and food are also coming under scrutiny.

Social marketing considers the marketing techniques like branding and segmentation, which has been used so successfully to get us to eat Big Macs, smoke Marlboro and drive SUVs, can also be used to encourage us to eat healthily, preserve our lungs and walk to work. Social marketing can also be used to influence the behaviour of stakeholders and policy-makers, to encourage the societal change that is needed to combat systemic problems such as child poverty and injustice. Additionally, we consider how the social marketer may provide guidance on how markets can be better managed for social good.

Examples of social marketing include campaigns to encourage, prevent or reduce

- Healthy eating (e.g. eat 2 and 5 campaign),
- Breast cancer screening,
- Intelligent use of resources,
- Sun safe behaviour (e.g. slip, slop, slap)
- Alcohol consumption,
- Smoking,
- Drug abuse,
- Domestic violence,
- Unsafe driving behaviour, and
- Waste through recycling.

The subject will use a case study approach drawing on current and historic Australian and international campaigns.

This unit contributes as a subject within the marketing major for Bachelor of Commerce and Bachelor of Arts degrees. This is also an elective unit open for any student across the university. It is a People designated unit.

Whilst previous study in marketing is not essential, any previous marketing knowledge would be an advantage (e.g. MKTG101 Fundamentals of Marketing and/or MKTG203 Consumer Behaviour, and/or MKTG208 Marketing Management).

TEACHING AND LEARNING STRATEGY

This unit employs a combination of lectures and tutorials. You are expected to attend all lectures and all the tutorials in your stream and to contribute to the discussions that are encouraged in tutorials. To make the best contribution, and to receive the greatest benefit from this unit, you are expected to be alert outside lectures and tutorials for every-day applications of the social marketing principles discussed in lectures and tutorials.

Please refer to the schedule of learning activities by teaching week. This schedule outlines the key content to be discussed in each week's lectures and tutorials. It additionally outlines the required weekly reading schedule for the Unit.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES AND OUTCOMES

This unit introduces students to the theory and application of social marketing, explaining how techniques such as branding, segmentation and the marketing mix can be used to respond to social and health issues. Students will learn to analyse real world problems and develop innovative and creative solutions using social marketing frameworks. Students will examine the design of marketing strategy that will move the target audience from indifference to action and ultimately maintenance.

The overall goal of the unit is to gain an understanding of how to plan and analyse social marketing strategies.

Learning Objectives:

1. Differentiate between commercial and social marketing, seeking out new ideas and opportunities.
2. Outline the scope of social marketing.
3. Become familiar with the range of issues where social marketing can have an impact.
4. Appreciate the characteristics and needs of others in society.
5. Critically analyze, discuss, and evaluate social marketing strategies.
6. Apply marketing techniques and theories to develop creative solutions to social problems acknowledging the implications of managerial decisions on society.
7. Understand prospective challenges to social issues including environmental sustainability.
8. Demonstrate use of written and oral skills to integrate key social marketing theoretical concepts and to create a coherent and theoretically rigorous argument relating to sustainability concepts.
9. Demonstrate awareness of social responsibility.
10. Use secondary research skills to collect, collate and integrate case examples with theory.

Graduate Capabilities

Macquarie Universities stated Graduate Capabilities may be viewed as a mix of cognitive capabilities, and personal, interpersonal, and social capabilities. In addition to the abovementioned learning outcomes, the MKTG309 Social Marketing and Sustainability unit has been designed to develop your skills within the specific graduate capability areas of socially and environmentally active and responsible.

We want our graduates to be capable of achieving the following;

- a) To be able to reason, question and analyse information
- b) To be able to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments
- c) To be able to critique constraints, assumptions, and limitations
- d) To be able to think independently and systematically in relation to scholarly activity in the workplace and in the world in general

RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN ASSESSMENT AND LEARNING OUTCOMES

Knowledge and understanding of social marketing are assessed by a mixture of examination, assignments and presentation. Marks in this unit will be allocated on the following basis:

1) Individual Assignment	20 marks
2) In-Semester Test	15 marks
3) Group Report and Presentation (As per tutorial topic allocated to your group)	25 marks
4) Final Examination	40 marks

Total: Assessment Summary

100 marks

A summary of the assessment for this Unit is provided in the table below.

Assessment Task	Due Date	Weight	Learning Objectives
In-semester test	Weeks 4 and 5	15%	1, 3, 4, 9.
Individual Assignment 2,000 words	Week 8	20%	2, 4, 5, 6, 9, 10.
Group Report and Presentation (30 Minutes) and Report (3,000- 4,000 words)	Presented during tutorials.	25%	5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10
Final Examination	See University Examination Timetable.	40%	1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 9.

1. Individual Assignment: A Report on a Social Marketing Campaign
2,000 words
Due: Week 8, 4.00pm, 8th October, 2010.
(Please submit to assignment box in BESS) - 20 marks

You need to consider the needs of your community and the world around you through the eyes of a social marketer. To this end, choose a social, environmental or health issue (e.g. recycling, smoking, domestic violence, speeding, healthy eating, Northern Territory Intervention, etc.) and analyse the issue and a specific campaign as it exists.

Note: ensure that you have not chosen a commercial or cause-related marketing campaign. Check your topic with your tutor before you proceed.

Use the format as follows:

Part 1

PROVIDE BACKGROUND, PURPOSE AND FOCUS OF THE SOCIAL MARKETING CAMPAIGN (Chapter 5)

1.1 Summarise the key background information leading to the development of this issue. (E.g. increased rates in teen pregnancies, decreased whale populations). Justify the choice of this problem. What is the cost to the community of this problem continuing? What has been tried so far? What impact has that had? Why do we need a fresh approach?

1.2 What is the campaign purpose and intended impact or benefit? (E.g. reduced teen pregnancies, protection of whales). How will we evaluate the campaign? What are its measurable outcomes?

1.3 What is the campaign focus? (E.g. teen abstinence, changed laws prohibiting whaling).

- Who is trying to address the issue?
 - government – federal, state, local

- non-profit organisations – including charities
- commercial organisations

Part 2

CONDUCT A SITUATION ANALYSIS (Chapter 5)

- 2.1 Internal Strengths
- 2.2. Internal Weaknesses
- 2.3 External Opportunities
- 2.4 External Threats

Part 3

TARGET MARKET (Chapters 6 and 7)

- 3.1. Who is the target group?
- 3.2 What are the barriers your audience may have to adopting the desired behaviour?
- 3.3 What are the key benefits your target audience will be motivated by? Remember to separate benefits for the target person from benefits to the community (unless the strategy is to tap into community guilt e.g., stop smoking for your children's sake.
- 3.4 Define the Objectives
 - * What behaviours, knowledge and beliefs are you trying to change?
 - * What goal is the campaign targeting?

Part 4

COMPETITION (Chapter 8)

- 4.1 What are the competing alternative behaviours?
- 4.2 What benefits do your audiences associate with these behaviours?
- 4.3 What costs do your audiences associate with these behaviours?

Part 5

POSITIONING (Chapter 9)

5.1 Write a positioning statement

E.g. We want [TARGET AUDIENCE] to see [DESIRED BEHAVIOUR] as [DESCRIPTION PHRASE] and as more important and beneficial than [COMPETITION].

Helpful Hints:

- You can include details about the campaign used (e.g., photographs, detailed explanation of the marketing experience, example of the marketing creative, etc.), as an appendix in the final report.
- Note that in the FINAL EXAM you will be expected to extend this analysis of the campaign to address the marketing strategies, i.e. product, price, place and promotion. In the exam you may be asked to discuss the extent to which the campaign was successful in persuading attitudinal and/or behavioural change.

In addition, you will be required to develop an improved response to this campaign, and to explain why your response would be an improvement. The expected format will be provided. Additional details will be provided closer to the exam.

- Also see the APPENDIX at the end of the Textbook for additional hints on structure

This INDIVIDUAL ASSIGNMENT must be submitted through TURNITIN with a printout of the report produced before submission of the assignment. Penalties will apply for non-compliant assignments. Referencing must be Harvard style. Please refer to the library style manual for additional guidance.

(See marking Guide at end of this outline for the criteria).

2. IN-SEMESTER TEST - WEEKS 4 and 5 (As per your TUTORIAL STREAM) - 15 Marks

In tutorial in WEEKS 4 and 5, all students will answer a set of questions related to each lecture and chapters including weeks 1 to 3.

You should come to Tutorial, with an understanding of the topics learned in weeks 1 to 3. It will be a combination of multiple choice and extended response.

3. TUTORIAL REPORT AND PRESENTATION -GROUP TASK (Due at the allocated tutorial as per lecture/tutorial schedule) (3000 – 4000 words report and a 30 minute presentation) - 25 marks

In week 2 (the first tutorial), you will form into groups (Note: the number of students per group will depend on the number of students in each tutorial. It may range from 2 to 6). The tutor will then allocate your group a topic that you must present to the class and lead discussion for the tutorial.

The topic that you have been allocated for that week as the leading group will be the topic that is graded for a mark out of 25 that will go towards your final grade. Your group will receive a mark out of 15 for the report and a mark out of 10 for the presentation.

Your Tutor will explain the procedural issues of handing in these tasks, discussion of these tasks and marks allocated for these tasks. See marking guide at the end of this outline.

4. FINAL EXAMINATION

40%

A three hour written examination will be held in the examination period. The examination will include questions relating to the Lectures, Textbooks, Tutorial work, your group projects, individual assignment, any case studies and videos presented, and any other materials discussed in lectures or distributed on “BLACKBOARD”. You will be expected to be able to apply your knowledge. To simply feedback lecture notes (or any other materials) will not guarantee a pass.

Further details of the exam structure will be given in lectures as the semester progresses.

Please note: You must pass the final exam to pass the unit.

All aspects of the prescribed textbook will be EXAMINABLE.

All lecture notes will be EXAMINABLE.

Lecture notes will be provided as PowerPoint slides on the University's Blackboard website.

All lectures for this unit are digitally recorded and are made available on i-Lecture.

No tutorial presentations will be uploaded onto Blackboard. You are expected to attend your tutorial and take notes for these topics as they are all examinable.

STUDENT ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The unit is taught by lecture and major assignment/tutorial activities engaging the topics. The unit is taught using practical real world scenarios and examples.

To ensure you engage in the unit and gain the most from the topics:

1. Attend class and prepare for the class by reading the material before the scheduled lecture and tutorial period. My lectures feature numerous practical and real life examples of the course principles in action that show how marketers use these concepts in everyday marketing. Missing a lecture may impede your ability to understand fully the concepts and principles covered. I suggest that you use a “buddy” system to ensure that if you miss a class that you get the appropriate notes from the lecture and please do not ask me to repeat a missed lecture for your benefit.
2. Understand that all of the material presented during the class lectures may be incorporated into exams, or other forms of evaluating student performance. You are responsible to ensure that you take appropriate notes of the class lectures, so when and if materials from the lectures appear on an exam, you have studied the correct material.
3. Understand that all written assignments are due at the time of the class in which they pertain and at no other time. We cannot accept late assignments.
4. Your role and responsibility includes a desire to learn and contribute to the learning experience for the group by actively participating in class discussions and exercises. I exercise the right to call on any student at any time for class participation and to judge your preparedness for the class.
5. You should arrive at class on time to avoid disrupting the class. Mobile phones, pagers, iPods and PDAs should be turned off before entering the classroom. Working on assignments from other courses or studying for other exams, reading outside materials unrelated to the course, talking with fellow students during lectures, sleeping in class, and any other disruptive behaviour(s) is(are) not permitted.

EXAMINATIONS

A final examination is included as an assessment task for this unit to provide assurance that:

- i) the product belongs to the student and
- ii) the student has attained the knowledge and skills specified in this Unit Outline.

A three (3) hour final examination for this unit will be held during the University Examination period, that is, from 17 November to 3 December 2010.

You are expected to present yourself for examination at the time and place designated in the University Examination Timetable. The timetable will be available in Draft form approximately eight weeks before the commencement of the examinations and in Final form approximately four weeks before the commencement of the examinations.

<http://www.timetables.mq.edu.au/exam>

The only exception to not sitting an examination at the designated time is because of documented illness or unavoidable disruption. In these circumstances you may wish to consider applying for Special Consideration. The University's policy on special consideration process is available at:

http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/special_consideration/policy.html

If a Supplementary Examination is granted as a result of the Special Consideration process the examination will be scheduled after the conclusion of the official examination period.

The Macquarie university examination policy details the principles and conduct of examinations at the University. The policy is available at:

<http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/examination/policy.htm>

PLAGIARISM

The University defines plagiarism in its rules: "Plagiarism involves using the work of another person and presenting it as one's own." Plagiarism is a serious breach of the University's rules and carries significant penalties. You must read the University's practices and procedures on plagiarism. These can be found in the Handbook of Undergraduate Studies or on the web at:

http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/academic_honesty/policy.html

The policies and procedures explain what plagiarism is, how to avoid it, the procedures that will be taken in cases of suspected plagiarism, and the penalties if you are found guilty. Penalties may include a deduction of marks, failure in the unit, and/or referral to the University Discipline Committee.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

The nature of scholarly endeavour, dependent as it is on the work of others, binds all members of the University community to abide by the principles of academic honesty. Its fundamental principle is that all staff and students act with integrity in the creation, development, application and use of ideas and information. This means that:

- all academic work claimed as original is the work of the author making the claim
- all academic collaborations are acknowledged
- academic work is not falsified in any way
- when the ideas of others are used, these ideas are acknowledged appropriately.

Further information on the academic honesty can be found in the Macquarie University Academic Honesty Policy at:

http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/academic_honesty/policy.html

GRADES

Academic Senate has a set of guidelines on the distribution of grades across the range from fail to high distinction. Your final result will include one of these grades plus a standardised numerical grade (SNG).

On occasion your raw mark for a unit (i.e., the total of your marks for each assessment item) may not be the same as the SNG which you receive. Under the Senate guidelines, results may be scaled to ensure that there is a degree of comparability across the university, so that units with the same past performances of their students should achieve similar results.

It is important that you realise that the policy does not require that a minimum number of students are to be failed in any unit. In fact it does something like the opposite, in requiring examiners to explain their actions if more than 20% of students fail in a unit. The process of scaling does not change the order of marks among students. A student who receives a higher raw mark than another will also receive a higher final scaled mark.

For an explanation of the policy see:

<http://senate.mq.edu.au/rules/Guidelines2003.doc> or <http://senate.mq.edu.au/rules/detailedguidelines.doc>

GRADING APPEALS AND FINAL EXAMINATION SCRIPT VIEWING

If, at the conclusion of the unit, you have performed below expectations, and are considering lodging an appeal of grade and/or viewing your final exam script please refer to the following website which provides information about these processes and the cut off dates in the first instance. Please read the instructions provided concerning what constitutes a valid grounds for appeal before appealing your grade.

http://www.businessandconomics.mq.edu.au/for/new_and_current_students/undergraduate/admin_central/grade_appeals

SPECIAL CONSIDERATION

The University is committed to equity and fairness in all aspects of its learning and teaching. In stating this commitment, the University recognises that there may be circumstances where a student is prevented by unavoidable disruption from performing in accordance with their ability. A special consideration policy exists to support students who experience serious and unavoidable disruption such that they do not reach their usual demonstrated performance level. The policy is available at: http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/special_consideration/procedure.html

STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES

Macquarie University provides a range of Academic Student Support Services. Details of these services can be accessed at <http://www.student.mq.edu.au>

IT CONDITIONS OF USE

Access to all student computing facilities within the Faculty of Business and Economics is restricted to authorized coursework for approved units. Student ID cards must be displayed in the locations provided at all times.

Students are expected to act responsibly when utilizing University IT facilities. The following regulations apply to the use of computing facilities and online services:

- Accessing inappropriate web sites or downloading inappropriate material is not permitted. Material that is not related to coursework for approved unit is deemed inappropriate.
- Downloading copyright material without permission from the copyright owner is illegal, and strictly prohibited. Students detected undertaking such activities will face disciplinary action, which may result in criminal proceedings.

Non-compliance with these conditions may result in disciplinary action without further notice.

Students must use their Macquarie University email addresses to communicate with staff as it is University policy that the University issued email account is used for official University communication.
