UNIT OUTLINE CLASS 01

Semester 1, 2008

Students in this unit should read the Unit Outline carefully at the beginning of the Semester. It contains important information about the unit. If anything in it is unclear, please consult the Unit Convenor.
ABOUT THIS UNIT

- Assumed knowledge: Principles of marketing.
- Marketing communications embraces an entire range of activities, media and enterprises, all of which have a role to play in communications in marketing strategy. Given a target customer, a product and a pricing strategy, together with decisions on specific distribution channels, a marketing communications programme is essential if the company's marketing offer is to reach the customer and meet customer expectations. The range of communications options available to an organization is large and, in recent years, has increased. Furthermore, the options are becoming quite specific in their application. It follows that a company's communication programme is an integral component of its marketing strategy. This unit explores marketing communications by considering theoretical issues and practical implications of implementation.
- Unit objectives: students will gain an understanding of the real world skills necessary to plan and execute a marketing communications strategy.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- The learning outcomes of this unit are …

Students will be able to demonstrate that they understand how to develop, execute or review and make recommendations or decisions about the worthiness of marketing communications programmes.

Students will be exposed to a range of practical 'marcomms' topics:

- Marketing & selling: their relationship
- Role of marketing communications
- Advertising: creating the brief.
- Public Relations.
- Sponsorships
- Conferences and conventions
- Media planning and buying.
- Direct Marketing B-to-B and B-to-C.
- Selling on the internet.
- Market research.
- Word-of-mouth and referrals.
- Brand valuation and return on investment.

The Macquarie experience is designed to lead students to a career in the city and a place in the world. It encourages life-long learning and links teaching to cutting-edge research.

Macquarie seeks to develop generic skills for students, building flexible outcomes for life and for the workplace over a life's career. These skills include:

- foundation skills of literacy, numeracy and information technology;
- self-awareness and interpersonal skills, such as the capacity for self-management, collaboration and leadership;
- communication skills for effective presentation and cultural understanding;
- critical analysis skills to evaluate, synthesise and judge;
- problem-solving skills to apply and adapt knowledge to the real world; and
- creative thinking skills to imagine, invent and discover.

TEACHING AND LEARNING STRATEGY

- The unit is taught by lecture and major assignment (individual, not group) engaging the topics taught in a practical real world scenario.

- What is expected from students? Read in advance; follow current developments in the market place; be able to apply the lessons of the lectures (reflected in the lecture notes) to the major assignment; respond to questions raised during lectures; demonstrate enthusiasm for the subject; challenge the lecturer's assumptions during lectures and explore opposing points of view.

RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN ASSESSMENT AND LEARNING OUTCOMES

• Statement on the rationale for the modes of assessment (that is, how do the assessment tasks fulfill and evaluate the stated learning outcomes of the unit).

  The objective of the major assignment is to encourage students to learn by applying the lessons of the lectures to an imagined 'real world' scenario and demonstrating to the teacher they comprehend the practicalities of conducting a marcomms exercise.

  The objective of the examination is to convince the lecturer that students have learned the lessons of the lectures and text book to the extent that they can demonstrate that they can apply them to resolving problems or prove that they can recall the basic rules and principles of the subject as taught.

  In-lecture quizzes provide students with early feedback on their whether or not they have fully understood the basic principles of five key lectures. Each of the five quizzes will offer a maximum of 3 marks: a total of 15.

Assessments:

  Marks in this unit will be allocated on the following basis -
  ♦ Final Examination 50%, (i.e. 50 marks)
  ♦ Major Individual Assignment 35% (i.e. 35 marks)
  ♦ In-lecture quizzes 15% (i.e. 15 marks)

All students are required to pass the final examination to obtain a passing grade for the unit, regardless of accumulated scores.
• Word length of each form of assessment:

  Major assignment…4000 words. Diagrams and illustrations are judged to be equivalent to 200 words.
  More words are acceptable if students deem them necessary;

  Examination…400 words per answer to essay questions.

• Due date for assignment: Friday May 9th at 10 am.
  Marked work is due to be returned to students May 23rd.

• Where students are to hand in their assignments: At lecture in E5A 107

• Expectations in relation to the presentation of written and/or oral work:

  All written work to be submitted in typed format on A4 white paper, using only one side of the sheet, 12pt Arial typeface, 1.5-spaced.
  Assignment to be contained securely in a ring or clip binder.
  References to be in keeping with APA guidelines & Macquarie University guidelines as detailed on the student information website.

  Pages can be simply stapled together at the top left corner, but it is recommended they be enclosed in a folder for safety.

• Work that is submitted late will be penalised at the rate of 5 marks per day.

EXAMINATION

• Exam date, time, location will be June 6th at 10 am in E5A 107.
• Exam duration: 2 hours and 45 minutes
• Format of exam: essay questions. Answers to be approximately 400 words in length. Students may choose to answer any 5 of a choice of 8 questions
• Policy on whether a pass in the exam is required for a pass in the unit irrespective of accumulated marks: All students are required to pass the final examination to obtain a passing grade for the unit.

• Policy on calculators: Calculators, PDAs, cell phones and other electronic aids are NOT permitted in the exam.

• Policy on dictionaries: Dictionaries are NOT permitted in the exam
The only exception to not sitting an examination at the designated time is because of documented illness or unavoidable disruption. In these circumstances you may wish to consider applying for Special Consideration. Information about unavoidable disruption and the special consideration process is available at http://www.reg.mq.edu.au/Forms/APSCon.pdf

You are advised that it is Macquarie University policy not to set early or delayed examinations for individuals or groups of students. All students are expected to ensure that they are available until the end of the teaching semester, that is the final day of the official University examination period, and can attend the exam at the designated time and place.

PLAGIARISM

The University defines plagiarism in its rules: "Plagiarism involves using the work of another person and presenting it as one's own." Plagiarism is a serious breach of the University's rules and carries significant penalties. You must read the University's practices and procedures on plagiarism. These can be found in the Handbook of Postgraduate Studies or on the web at: http://www.student.mq.edu.au/plagiarism/

The policies and procedures explain what plagiarism is, how to avoid it, the procedures that will be taken in cases of suspected plagiarism and the penalties if you are found guilty. Penalties may include a deduction of marks, failure in the unit, and/or referral to the University Discipline Committee.

UNIVERSITY POLICY ON GRADING

Academic Senate has a set of guidelines on the distribution of grades across the range from fail to high distinction. Your final result will include one of these grades plus a standardised numerical grade (SNG).

On occasion, your raw mark for a unit (i.e., the total of your marks for each assessment item) may not be the same as the SNG which you receive. Under the Senate guidelines, results may be scaled to ensure that there is a degree of comparability across the university, so that units with the same past performances of their students should achieve similar results.

It is important that you realise that the policy does not require that a minimum number of students are to be failed in any unit.
The process of scaling does not change the order of marks among students. A student who receives a higher raw mark than another will also receive a higher final scaled mark.

STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES

Macquarie University provides a range of Academic Student Support Services. Details of these services can accessed at http://www.student.mq.edu.au

MAJOR ASSIGNMENT

PURPOSE of this assignment is to encourage you to apply, in a practical way, the lessons learned in our lecture series. You can also apply some of the information gathered from your reading list.

VALUE of this assignment is 35% of the marks for the unit.

TIMING
The vagaries of the timing of holidays etc during the semester mean that some of the topics useful to your assignment will not have been covered in the lectures by the time you need to hand in your assignment. However, you are encouraged to read ahead so you can draw from the lecture notes supplied on the website.

LENGTH of assignment should be around 4,000 words - graphs and charts are counted as 200 words.

GUIDANCE
It will be up to you as individual students to consult the lecturer for advice on how to go about the process of developing this assignment. Your opportunity to do this will come when questions are requested during lectures and during the period allotted to “tutorial” in the latter part of the lecture. Writing advice can be gathered at http://www.monash.edu.au/lhs/llonline/writing/general/essay/index.xml
QUESTIONS

The best questions are planned and discussed with your fellow students. This is not group work, these are individual assignments. However, you are not in competition with your fellow students and you should take the opportunity to share your concerns with them as you attempt to formulate an appropriate response to this challenge.

By their very nature, briefs are brief! You will be developing a combination plan and briefing document that will need to inform and occasionally instruct your various suppliers of services. Your advertising agency, your PR agency, market researchers, events organisers, media planners etc. will all need to know the way you think about this problem and what, in broad terms, you expect from each of them in their particular unique roles as specialist service providers.

♦ What do you expect of each different supplier?
♦ What do you see as their responsibilities to each other as contributors to a mutually successful team?
♦ How will you judge their performance?
♦ What is your timetable of expectations from them?

This is rather a large challenge.
Start EARLY!
Start asking questions early!

Major Assignment TASK

Imagine you have just been appointed as the new worldwide Marketing Manager for very old brand (launched in 1906) Kiwi Shoe Polish. The brand is owned by global giant Sara Lee, whose predecessor, Consolidated Foods, acquired the brand in 1984.

Kiwi's sales in fiscal 2007 rose 4.4 per cent to US$310 million, contributing about 2.5 per cent of Sara Lee’s $US12 billion in annual revenue.

The Board, representing shareholders, expects you to develop a comprehensive, fully integrated marketing communications campaign that will increase Kiwi’s share of the retail shoe care market. Your mission is to develop a marketing communications (marcomms) program that will overwhelm competitors in all shoe care categories and make Kiwi the "BIG FISH" of shoe care worldwide.

You wish to convince your Board of Directors to invest double the amount of cash in advertising and PR and other marcomms activities as a long-term investment in increasing sales and enhancing future cash flows. However, like any Board, they are wary of putting costs up without being convinced they will see an immediate return on their investment in marcomms actions. The Finance Director in particular is deeply sceptical that cash should be spent when it could be retained as profit.

You want to refresh Kiwi’s brand image so future demand will be significantly higher than it is today but you need the resources to do it. Mount an argument to convince the Board of Directors to grant you the funds you need to fulfil your marketing communications ambitions. You want to lift your spend substantially from $3 million to $7 million a month. That would allow you to be the dominant voice in shoe care.

Develop briefs for all your marcomms suppliers…ad agency, PR agent, direct marketers, market researchers, conference/show & exhibition advisers, internet gurus, sponsorship advisors, word-of-mouth experts, media planners & buyers.

Draft a document that will ensure all these players and any others you might use can all understand precisely what their roles will be in your overall attack on the market, and how they will integrate their efforts so the whole of your campaign is greater than the sum of the parts.

Tell them what you expect of them, when and where you expect it and how you will judge the success or otherwise of their efforts on your brand’s behalf.
