TEACHING AND LEARNING STRATEGY

CLASS STRUCTURE

Each session will involve a tutorial section of up to 1 to 1.25 hours to discuss the previous week’s assigned homework questions, work through in-class focus question(s) and address any issues from the previous week’s material. The session will then continue with a lecture on the current week’s topic.

The tutorial session provides an opportunity to discuss the solutions to selected weekly homework questions and to have any problems or difficulties explained. In addition an in-class focus question will be worked through to demonstrate the logical steps and processes involved in working through the practical aspect of the topic. The in-class focus question MUST also be attempted before class along with the assigned homework questions.

Students are required to genuinely attempt the assigned homework for the topic, consisting of discussion questions, practical exercises and problems.

The in-class focus question will cover the main or more difficult aspects of the topic. It is required to be completed as part of the assigned homework for the topic but will not be included in the solutions released on the unit web page.

The lecture will include a 1.5 – 2 hour presentation of the main concepts and content and a demonstration of practical example(s). A break will be given during the three hour period at the discretion of the lecturer.
Homework Solutions and Lecture Materials and Announcements

- All homework solutions (except for in-class focus questions) will be available on the unit web page, http://learn.mq.edu.au before the tutorial is to be discussed the following week in class. You must CORRECT your work in a RED pen. Your lecturer will look for these corrections.

- The homework solutions will usually be available the Thursday (7am) the week before the tutorial homework is due. The in-class focus question will only be discussed and worked through in class and solutions will not be available on the unit web page and copies will not be made available in any form.

- A number of self study questions will be set for each topic. These questions are designed to give students additional questions to attempt to assist in their understanding of each topic. These questions are not compulsory (however students are strongly encouraged to genuinely attempt these questions to gain the maximum benefit) and can be attempted at any time.

- The self study solutions for all topics will be made available prior to the week commencing the lecture topic; these solutions can be downloaded at any time. These questions and solutions will not be specifically addressed in class, should you have any queries you should ask your lecturer or one of the staff during consultation times.

- The lecture materials provided on the unit web page will have some gaps for which you are required to complete in class, in particular for the practical aspect of the course. Completed lecture notes will not be made available unless you contact the Unit Convenor in writing.

- Any important notices will be posted on the unit web page for ACCG 862 under the Announcements Folder (refer to the icons on the left hand side of the unit home page). It is your responsibility to check this folder and your student email account on a regular basis to ensure you are aware of any information which may be posted by the Unit Convenor, Program Director or Academic Coordinator during the course of the semester.

Communication Skills

To assist students in developing their communication skills a two hour session will be run during normal class time by a representative from Centre for Macquarie English (CME) in classes during the week commencing 4th April 2011. This session will focus on professional letter writing. The session will be interactive and attendance is compulsory for all students. Material covered in this session may be examined in the assignment and the final examination for this subject.
RESEARCH AND PRACTICE

- The unit contains a research-based written assignment worth 15% of the overall assessment.
